Managing Behavior Changes in Alzheimer's Disease

Wednesday, August 7th at 11:00 am

Behavioral changes in Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia can pose concerns for family caregivers. As the disease progresses, behavior often becomes the primary way people with the disease communicate their needs. Learn why people with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia experience behavior changes, what those behaviors mean, and how to cope when behaviors are challenging.

Understanding Memory Loss

Tuesday, August 13th at 2:00 pm

Memory loss that disrupts everyday life is not a normal part of aging. This program differs from "Understanding Dementia" as it explores the differences between normal age-related memory changes and abnormal changes that are associated with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia, including some of the common warning signs. The presentation also reviews the importance of receiving a thorough diagnostic evaluation when symptoms first arise, current treatment options, and research regarding healthy aging.

Coping with Caregiver Stress

Wednesday, August 28th at 11:00 am

Caring for a person with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia can be a very overwhelming experience. Often, caregivers neglect their own well-being because they devote so much time to the responsibilities of day-to-day caregiving. This program examines caregiver stress and offers coping strategies to become a healthier caregiver.
